Tips

Description

Discover the true authentic heart of North Holland on this scenic tour. You will explore a charming landscape of working windmills, canals, picturesque villages, and locals preserving traditional culture. This day tour is filled with Dutch history and charm. Tag along with your live English and Spanish speaking guide and enjoy the day. Your journey begins with Zaanse Schans, the famous open-air museum, where you will admire its magnificent collection of historic windmills, picturesque homes, wooden barns, and scenic meadows. Next, you will head to the small fishing town of Marken, renowned for its preservation of traditional Dutch culture, and take a walking tour through its colorful streets. The tour then continues to Volendam, where you can enjoy free time to explore the shops or try on a traditional costume for a souvenir photo. Following Volendam, you will enjoy a tasting at a traditional Holland cheese factory and learn how cheese is made before continuing into the heart of North Holland to Edam. Here, you will discover the history of the former shipyard and see the Grote Kerk, one of the largest churches in the Netherlands, as you stroll the cobbled streets. Finally, you will travel back to Amsterdam by coach after a full day of cultural discovery. The Classic Package ensures a complete cultural experience, including both a tasting at a traditional Holland cheese factory and a demonstration at a wooden clog-making studio. For the ultimate adventure, the All-in Package includes all features of the Classic Package, plus a scenic Marken Express boat trip across the beautiful IJssel Lake, exclusive entrance to an operating windmill, and a sweet treat at Woltje's Bakery. Please note: The itinerary is subject to change due to traffic conditions, roadworks, and other unforeseen circumstances.
